

SESSIONAL COACH WALES

Pay – £8.72 to £14.27 (depending on experience)

Reporting to – Delivery Coordinator

Team – Delivery

Location – Wales region

Contract type – fixed term, part time

JOB BACKGROUND

You will be part of the Delivery Team running and supporting our sessions in the Wales region. You will be working to deliver our interventions to young people who are disengaged with their education. We do this through, coaching rugby, mentoring, and developing key life skills through a varied holistic approach.

The Delivery Team always work in pairs, running our interventions across multiple sites and education settings (including mainstream schools, Pupil Referral Units, Alternative Provisions, Special Educational Needs schools, Youth Offenders Institutes and Secure Schools). You will always work alongside one of our Delivery Coordinators or Mentors who will act as the session lead.

We are specifically seeking Sessional Coaches to delivery sessions in Merthyr, Abercynon, Aberdare, Cardiff, Swansea & Carmarthen.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- Support Delivery Coordinators & Mentors to deliver sessions.
- Build meaningful and supportive relationships with young people.
- Adapt to changing school environments and work creatively to deliver sessions to a range of young people.
- Support with collection of data in sessions.
- To follow the Dallaglio RugbyWorks processes around reporting incidents and safeguarding concerns to ensure we are protecting young people to the highest standard.
- Establish and maintain professional relationships with staff within the education settings that we work in.

PERSON SPECIFICATION

ESSENTIAL

- Previous experience delivering youth work or sport sessions.
- A passion to help change young people's lives and supporting them to build a positive, productive future.
- Enthusiasm for using sport as a tool for social change.
- Being approachable, positive, empathetic, and patient.
- Ability to resolve conflict peacefully.
- Reliable and excellent time keeping.

DESIRABLE

- Sports coaching or youth work qualification/training.
- Previous experience delivering young work, mentoring or sports-based sessions to at risk young people in a range of settings.